

The problem scale n usually corresponding to the number of decision variables.

